'Of Lasting Interest' — One of A Series

Compress Marks City Asset

A STAFF FEATURE

A sprawling maze of warehouses -- with a storage capacity of 48,000 bales of cotton -- marks a historic and basic asset in Cameron.

This is Cameron Compress, started in 1895 by Cameron pioneers and owned and operated today by early Cameron residents.

King Cotton brought Cameron Compress into operation. And the cotton crops not only of Milam but of West Texas counties sustain this major Cameron industry.

Employing from eight to 50 people, Cameron Compress processes and forwards cotton bales to Texas ports for shipment to domestic mills or export to foreign countries.

Current officers of the Compress are: President, W. B. Dossett; vice-president, W. B. Dossett, Jr., and secretary - treasurer Stanley H. Swift.

Veteran superintendent of this complex is P. W. Davis, who has managed the operation since 1938.

77,000 - BALE PEAK

Both the owners and management recall a long history of the company which in its peak year of 1928 processed 77,000 bales of cotton.

Cameron Compress' history goes from the original storage facility of 2,000 bales to its present 48,000 bale capacity, easily the largest warehousing facility in Milam County and one of the largest in Central Texas.

Dossett, company president, recalls that a group of Cameron investors purchased $12,200 of stock in April 1895 to join with three other major stockholders in organizing the company.

First officers of the company were: President C. H. Yoe, donor of Yoe High School to Cameron; vice-president, John M. Hefley, and secretary, John B. McLane.

Other founders were S. J. Webb, J. T. Smithers and E. N. Phillips. But Dossett reports that business apparently was not too good. Webb bought out part of the stock in 1900, then sold his stock to A. J. Dossett, who moved to Cameron from Meridian, Miss.

RAINS SAVE CROP

The Galveston storm that summer brought heavy rains throughout Central Texas. Milam County made one of its largest crops, saving what appeared to be a crop failure. A. J. Dossett and R. D. Brown bought up the outstanding stock putting the company in complete ownership of the Dossett family.

This historic operation was not without other difficulty. In 1920 the plant burned, destroying all records. Since that year, the low ebb was the drought year of 1925 when 10,000 bales were processed, the highest in 1928 with 77,000 bales.

Supt. Davis lists the current year - round staff that swells to a peak of 50 employees during the cotton season: wharf foreman, J. H. Angell; leverman - firemen, Billy Braden and Terry Hardwick; mechanical supervisor, H. J. Schattle, Jr.; and office manager, Mrs. Ollie Short.

The Compress processes incoming bales from gins, Davis points out, weighs and tags them and issues negotiable warehouse receipts.

That process requires the use of a huge steam - driven compress, careful record keeping and night-and-day operation during cotton harvesting, usually about six months.

Recalling the support Cameron residents first gave the Compress, President Dossett cited these original stockholders: E. Y. Terrell, Thomas A. Peoples, John M. Hefley, J. J. Irwin, C. H. Yoe, J. B. Moore, John B. McLane, August Horstmann, E. Sanders, S. B. Ford, W. T. Hefley, C. G. Cobb, W. L. Baird, F. Rendor, Robert McLane, E. D. Atkinson, J. T. Smithers, B. J. Baskin, M. K. Lott, A. J. Lewis, F. A. Black, E. N. Phillips, Sanger & Company, E. Y. Williams, Jeter & Company, R. D. Brown, B. Vogel, J. C. Joseph, Tom Peoples, R. C. Faulkner, C. A. Pitts, Miss Nettie Moore, Miss Mollie Moore, T. S. Henderson, J. M. Ralston, S. J. Webb & Brothers, who manufactured compress machinery.

Moore noted that farm increases can be obtained by utilizing proven practices already in operation in the Milam area.

"We agreed that production is not something done overnight, but can be done in practical five-year approach," Moore said.

AT MEETING

Cameron C of C agriculture committee members are: Alva Sanders, of ASCS; B. F. Grimes, P. W. Davis, E. Max Howard, John Henderson, Sr., C. O. Angell, the Rev. John T. Geiser, C of C President Richard Williams and Chairman Moore.

Joining with the group in last Thursday's session were: Elwood Harber, voc - ag teacher, Thordale; Cornelius Titworth, voc-ag teacher, Cameron; Gene Bayer, voc ag teacher, Buckholts; Robert Clark, PCA manager; Charles M. McGilvary, assistant FHA manager; and Henry Siebman, TP&L, Cameron.

CONSTRUCTION UNDERWAY AT DAIRY SITE

Construction has begun on the J. N. Stuart dairy farm, just northwest of Cameron.

G. F. Dunston, manager of the new dairy operation, this week told The Herald that depending good weather, workmen should complete erecting an all - steel milking parlor, 7200 square feet, within 30 days.

Mr. and Mrs. Dunston have moved to Cameron and reside at 1602 North Harding.

Moving of the Florida firm's registered Jersey herd will begin as soon as facilities are complete on the 10 - acre site northwest of Cameron, just off the Yarrleton-Cameron farm - to - market road.

Concrete foundation work and installation of large plumbing fixtures was underway this week.

Dunston said weather has already delayed building the large milk building and other structures.

The Florida firm purchased the Frank Perrin farm and other acreage in 1961.

Clearing of the site from scrub oak timberland already was completed prior to Dunston's arrival.

Also built was an improved roadway and crossing over a small stream on the dairy property.

Other buildings will include facilities for the Jersey herd, both for dairying and breeding purposes. A waterline will be connected with the city water system later on to provide water for operation.

'Back-Yoemen Night' Set

Caldwell, Yoe To Play

It will be 'Back - Your - Yoemen' night Friday at Yoe Gym when Cameron meets Caldwell in a district battle.

A pep rally Friday morning will kick off the 'Back - Your - Yoemen' effort at Yoe High School. Parents night will be held and players will be introduced at the game. The YHS swing band usually plays at the game.

Following the game will be a student dance, sponsored by the YHS Student Council. It will be a sock hop at Yoe Gym, officials said.

Cameron will face Caldwell for the second time this season. Cage Coach Jack Larimore told The Herald, Last time Caldwell racked up a 54 - 34 win, but the Yoemen will be out to even the score in the district contest.

The A-team game begins at 8 p. m. And Jimmy Rettig's B-team will take to the hardwood at 6:30 p. m. for a return match with the Caldwell Bees.

Caldwell brings two good shots to Yoe Gym, Larimore said. Guard Charlie Matejowsky and center Jamie Langham both are hitting for more than 10 points per district game.

Cameron district scoring is led by sophomore Merlin Lester, a lean 6-3 who is currently swishing the nets for more than 10 points per game.

RACE DEVELOPS

FOR CAMERON JP;

C. L. YOUNT FILES

Three additional candidates have filed for precinct races while pole tax totals in Milam County were headed for the 3,600 mark.

Filing with Milam Democratic secretary Max McClaren were: Jess Brock, for justice of peace, Precinct 1; Frank Jekel, justice of peace, Precinct 7; and C. L. Yount, county commissioner, Thorndale, Precinct 4.

Officials at the assessor - collector's office said that about 200 more poll tax payments through Wednesday night will bring the total at the Courthouse to about 3,200. And payment of polls at Rockdale and Thorndale sub - stations was expected to reach about 400.

City Secretary John Andres said that poll taxes at City Hall totaled about 670 Wednesday noon and would probably reach about 750 by closing time.

In County filings, the three additional candidates were the only ones to file since a flurry of nine filed two weeks ago.

The only contested Justice of Peace race developed when Brock filed. He is running against incumbent B. G. Rice for the Cameron Precinct post.

Yount's filing meant a contested race for Thorndale Precinct county commissioner. Incumbent C. H. McCasland had previously filed.

Other contested races in the Milam area are for state representative with incumbent Herman Yeak being opposed by Cameron businessman Milton Schiller.

McClaren said filing deadline is midnight, February 5.

COTTON REPORT

Harvesting the remainder of this season's crop was held down by cold, wet weather. Spot markets were moderately active. Prices strengthened for some qualities. Producers offered late ginnings freely. Domestic mills and foreign sources were expressing more interest.

Prices of Middling 1" cotton advanced in the Dallas, Galveston and Lubbock markets during the week, quoted Thursday, January 25, at 33.50 cents, 33.40 cents and 33.00 cents, respectively, compared with 33.05, 33.25, and 32.85 cents a week ago. The Houston price of 32.25 cents was unchanged from last week. Cotton harvesting is nearing a completion in the late producing sections. There remains considerable scrapping to be done in a good many localities. Many gins have closed or have set ginning days. Producers continued to offer current ginnings freely.

Domestic mill activity increased this week. Inquiries were more numerous with the best demand for the medium and lower qualities. Prices confined purchases to a small to moderate volume which included some Middling and higher grades. Some mills were expressing interest for forward deliveries extending into next season. Foreign interest was stronger this week. Inquiries increased but many were for information purposes. Bidding prices were about unchanged from the previous week, limiting purchases to a moderate volume.

Producers in the Valley area were pre-irrigating in preparation to planting cotton after February 1. In the Corpus Christi area most sections will need a good rain before planting can begin.

County Agents Notes

Program Solicits Ranchers Help

By J. D. Moore
Milam County Agent

John S. Batte, chairman of the program for enlisting stockmen support of the screwworm program in Milam county, would like to remind all stockmen that this program is big and is being set up to save stockmen money.

Community meetings are being held for the purpose of explaining the progra and to appoint community chairmen. These community chairmen will ask stockmen and others to help contact stockmen who may be unable to attend these meetings.

Basically, the program calls for stockmen to contribute 50 cents per head for adult beef and dairy cattle, steers and hoes. Ten cents per head for each adult swine, sheep or goat. These funds will be used to supplement, where needed, present research facilities and programs.

This money may be claimed as operating expense for income tax purposes. A goal of $7500 has been set for Milam County by the local committee. Response was good at the meeting in Cameron, January 18.

A record will be kept of all contributions by Bill Arthur, who was elected Secretary - Treasurer for the county, and the money will be refunded if the program does not materialize.

As a result of this program in Florida, stockmen did not have to spend any money last year on the control of screwworms. Some are of the opinion, that because of this severe weather we are experiencing, this program could be completed in 1962. All the more reason for immediate and solid support for the present drive for funds.

Civic minded individuals who are not stockmen, as well as allied industries, are contributing to this fund. Those who wish to help are asked to make a check in whatever amount they wish to contribute. Write the check to S. A. H. R. F. and mail or give in person to your community chairman or mail it to John S. Batte, Box 644, Cameron or to Bill Arthur, Box 88, Cameron.

Milam ASCS

Report

By Milam County ASCS

The 1962 feed grain program, enacted by the Congress in its voluntary plan designed to continue reduction of burdensome over-supplies. Based on the success of the 1961 emergency feed grain program, the 1962 program has only a few changes other than the addition of barley to the program.

The 1962 program again provides corn and grain sorghum acreage from the 1959 - 60 base for these crops on individual farms. Farmers who make the reductions will receive payments for diverting the former corn or grain sorghum acreage to conservation uses. In addition, producers must not exceed their barley feed grain base in order to be eligible for payment on feed grain.

All producers of corn and grain sorghum who produced these grains in 1959 and or 1960 are eligible to take part in the feed grain program under which the acreage of corn and grain sorghum is reduced and diverted to conservation uses. The program is voluntary, but participation by farmers who produce corn and grain sorghum is required if they want to be eligible for price support, on their 1962 crops of corn and grain sorghum. Oats and rye will be eligible for price support only if the farm participates and is in compliance with either the barley program or the corn - grain sorghum program (unless there is no feed grain base established for these commodities and no acreage of these commodities is produced in 1962).

The county ASCS office will again use the farm acreage information for all crops for 1959 and 1960 in the establishment of a corn and or grain sorghum base for a farm. Most farmers supplied 1959 and 1960 crop acreage information to ASCS offices for the 1961 program.

Farm Machines —

Deduction, Income Taxes

COLLEGE STATION — Depreciation takes its toll from farm machinery, buildings and other farm investments every year. It's just simple economics that capital goods lose value as they age. There is a bright spot, however, because farmers can deduct this depreciation from their income tax.

says C. H. Bates, extension farm management specialist.

All farmers, whether they complete their own tax returns or provide information to an accountant for filing, should study the choices on depreciation available to them. A copy of the 1962 Farmers Tax Guide, which may be obtained from the local county agent, provides an explanation of the alternatives available. The discussion in Chapter 9 of the Guide explains how each of these choices can affect the amount of tax to be paid in a particular year.

A rather recent change in the tax law allows what is called Additional First Year Depreciation. This is a flat 20 percent deduction allowed the first year on personal property used in farming (or business) provided the assets have a useful life of six or more years. The total amount on which this deduction can be taken is $10,000 on a single tax return, or $20,000 on a joint return, explains Bates.

For computing regular year -to-year depreciation, the farmer has a choice of three different methods. If the Straight Line Method is used, the farmer subtracts a reasonable salvage value from the cost of the asset and then divides the remainder by the number of years of estimated useful life. This gives the annual depreciation allowance, which is the same amount every year.

Under the Declining Balance Method, the rate of depreciation on new assets is double the rate used in straight line method. For example, on a tractor having 10-year life, the depreciation is computed by taking 20 per cent of the cost as the first year's allowance. This is then subtracted from the cost, and 20 percent of the remainder is the second year's allowance. Bates points out. No salvage value is required under the Declining Balance Method since there is a remainder after 10 years deductions.

The farmer's choice of the Declining Balance Method of other fast write - off on an asset would depend on his need of larger deductions. For example, in a year of unusually good income, a tractor, combine or other asset bought could be placed on this method, thereby doubling the depre-

Mrs. Johnnie Schulte Jr.

Barbara Coward Weds Johnnie Schulte Jr.

In a candlelight ceremony Saturday in the First Methodist Church in Cameron, Miss Barbara Louise Coward, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Coward, and Mr. Johnnie Schulte, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Schulte of Brenham, were united in marriage. The double ring ceremony was officiated by Reverend Leland Evans of Temple.

The altar was decorated with brass candelabras and large baskets of chrysanthemums. Mrs. Hilliard Thomas of Cameron provided the nuptial music and accompanied Mrs. Marie Matthews of Rockdale who sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride given in marriage by her father wore a gown of Chantilly lace over taffeta. It was created with a portrait neckline of scalloped lace, with traditional long sleeves ending in petal points over the hands. Small covered buttons fastened the sculptured bodice. The bouffant skirt was accented with an overskirt effect of lace, banded in taffeta at the hemline and with a small taffeta bow enhancing the taffeta band at one side. Her bouffant veil of silk illusion was held in place by a crown fashioned of pearls.

The bride carried a Bible covered with an orchid and white carnations. Her jewelry was a single strand of pearls, a gift of the groom.

The bride was attended by Mrs. Elton Coward as Matron of Honor and Miss Sharon Laywell as maid of honor, both of Houston. They wore identical dresses of powder blue taffeta with short cap sleeves and bouffant skirt. Their accessories were in a matching shade of blue.

Harold Kolkhorst of Houston served as best man and Charles Schulte, of Brenham, brother of the groom, served as groomsman. Ushers were Elton Coward of Houston and Earl Kolkhorst of Brenham.

The bride's mother chose a navy blue dress with matching accessories. The groom's mother wore a dress of navy blue with accessories of light blue. Both wore orchid corsages.

Immediately following the ceremony, the reception was held in the fellowship hall of the church. The three tiered cake was topped with a miniature bride and groom. Mrs. Jeanne Williams of Milano cut and served the cake. Mrs. Loraine Arnold of Cameron served the punch. Miss Diahann Shoaf, of Houston, niece of the bride, preside over the bride's book and registered all guests.

For a short wedding trip the bride chose a suit of royal blue knit and wore the orchid from her bridal bouquet. The couple plan to make their home at 1024 Dreyfus, Houston, where the bride is employed at Carnation Company and the groom is employed at American Steel.

The bridegrooms parents were hosts Friday evening at a rehearsal dinner for the bridal party at The Texan.

'Study, Dedicate', King Tells Players

Dub King, Central Texas sports analyst, Monday night advised Yoe athletes to study, train and never quit.

In a talk highlighted by anecdotes, King advised a banquet crowd of YHS football players and Knights of Columbus members and guests that there is no room for the "tramp athlete."

Introduced by the MC Charlie Burke, the Cen - Tex sports publicist noted:

ONE — Athletes must get in shape and stay in shape.

TWO — Determine that athletes can become great despite size and physical handicaps.

THREE — An athlete should either love his game's competition or quit.

OUR — Understand that winners and champions don't quit until the last whistle is blown.

FIVE — "It's not sissy to go to the House of God on Sunday."

In describing athletes who disregarded size or physical limitations, he recalled the story of Raymond Berry, Southwest Conference gridder, who gained all - pro fame as an end with the Baltimore Colts.

"Here was Berry, with one leg shorter than the other, and rated about the 20th best SWC end in his day, taking top honors with the Colts, because he wanted to," King said.

The same story applies to Roger Maris, who was told to go back to his Midwest home and Johnny Unitas who became hte Baltimore Colts all - pro quarterback after running fourth string with Pittsburgh," King emphasized.

Burke took over as master of ceremonies after Oscar Zoltz, KofC grand knight welcomed the 150 football players and guests.

Coach John Roberts talked briefly to the group and Coach Ray Stevens introduced the 1961 grid Yoemen.

BIG - An Assault On Milam Ag Problems

A fundamental attack on Milam's and the 25 - county Blackland Belt's fundamental problem has begun.

The agriculture committee of the Cameron Chamber of Commerce is going to survey 160 of Milam County's farms (about one - tenth) to determine basic gross and net incomes.

Armed with these facts, the group will begin a five - year program to double the farm income of Milam farmers, applying proven practices to agriculture commodities now being produced here.

Thus an evolutionary process of raising ourselves by our bootstraps is taking shape. And with good reason.

Of the 25 - county Blackland Belt, Milam County families, not just farm families, have a low median income of $1,679. This shows the imbalance when compared with median income of industrial Dallas County with a $4,458 median income.

Lowest median income for a county's rural families is posted by Rockwall County with an average of $1,457.

These figures are based on U. S. Department of Agriculture data compiled for the year 1959.

The Cameron Chamber agriculture committee included Milam high school agriculture teachers, local Chamber leaders, and representatives of the FHA, ASC and County Agent's office. It is a true cross section of Cameron and Milam business and agriculture leaders.

Of key importance is the co - operation of those 160 sample farmers who will be asked to volunteer information about their farming operations. Based on these 160 samplings, to be considered representative of all Milam farms, appropriate action can be taken to raise Milam Agriculture to a new level of production and prosperity.

Officials assure us that these figures will be kept entirely confidential. The figures will be used as a "benchmark" from which the farmers and agriculture experts can advise and develop the technical procedures for "Operation BIG".

BIG stands for Blackland Income Growth. Its introduction and success can literally turn Milam agriculture into the basic strength of this county as in all Blackland Counties. Similar projects are underway throughout the Central Texas area.

Need for such a program has long been apparent. With such a low median income for all Milam families, with the loss of farm population throughout Central Texas, with the hesitancy to adapt to new techniques, with a food commodity program that serves up to 3,000 people in one month - a frontal assault on basic agriculture problems comes none to soon.

Application of modern procedures to farming will show results in a few years. With those successes will come a wider development of agri - business and industry which will employ those farm families needing outside income to stay on the farm.

Though it will be evolutionary it can be a revolution of intent and drive for a better life in the tradition of hard-working Milam Countians.

It will require every co - operation and abundant interest in the new, proven ways in agriculture. With these can come success.

We urge the interest of every segment of every Milam community and all of Milam County in this undertaking.

Why not ask what you can do to help. For, in reality, you will be helping yourself.

'Sing A Song Of Enthusiasm . . .'

Announcement of Operation BIG and construction on the new Stuart dairy operation northwest of Cameron showed the promise that Milam County's soil and central location can bring.

J. K. Stuart, of Bartow, Florida, is moving his registered Jersey herd to the near - Cameron site now under construction. Two reasons for the move were the location and availability of water.

The success of Operation Blackland Income Growth (BIG) is bringing together the knowhow of private enterprise, agriculture and government agencies for the genuine improvement of the Blackland Counties' condition, Milam a leader among them.

There is a promise of a lot of hard work, changes of direction and application and need for superior co - operation. But all will benefit if the doubling of agriculture is achieved here in five years.

Many agencies contribute to the continued development of Milam County. And they apply their facilities to the basic farm problem. A net result will be a unity of interest and action that will bring better agriculture and industry too.

We welcome Mr. Stuart's confidence in Milam County and skilled managers who will direct the operation. And we "sing a song" of enthusiasm over the ambitious but realistic approach to booming Milam agriculture.

Property Fight Settled On State

By Vern Sanford

AUSTIN — Gov. Price Daniel's long fight over reporting unclaimed property to the state for escheat has ended at last.

So has the argument over rural roads policy.

But the scrap over the question of what to do about regulating loans, interest rates and lenders is not yet settled. And it may not be for a long, long time.

The Legislature has settled the escheat and road policy questions. Also it has partially solved the advertising program for tourists, juvenile parole and repair of the San Jacinto Monument.

Money problems were eased when Comptroller Bob Calvert estimated that the escheat reporting law passed last year will yield at least $300,000 during the next 20 months. He put no estimate on the bank reporting law just laid on Governor Daniel's desk for certain signature into law.

When the Legislature meets, growing Texas brings a pack of problems to Austin for it to solve.

High Plains irrigation farmers are quarreling with their gas company. They want its rates regulated. Sen. Andy Rogers of Childress and Rep. H. G. Wells of Tulla tussled a bill through both houses to let the farmers appeal to the Railroad Commission, just as cities can do, if the gas company increases its rates.

San Angelo and Edinburg got favorable reports from the Commission on Higher Education on making San Angelo College and Pan American College, now locally supported, part of the state system of colleges in 1965.

They came to Austin to get the Legislature to pass the necessary laws, and make the state take over support of the colleges. House of Representatives went along with both proposals.

But Sen. W. T. Moore of Bryan down in A & M country, thinks Texas has enough state colleges already. So, he used the filibuster to fight the two new college bills to a standstill.

WAY TO ROADS PAVED
State Highway Commissioner

Herb Petry Jr. complimented the Legislature on passage of the Farm to - Market Road bill. He announced new projects as soon as Governor Daniel's signature was on the bill.

The Commissioner approved $135-000 worth of surfacing work on highways in Cameron and Hidalgo counties and an $82,000 highway contract in Cameron County. Within the next 60 days they will try to schedule more than $1,000,000 of work on US 83 in the Valley and $500,000 for road work in the Valley.

Senators Bob Baker of Houston and Neveille Colson of Navasota appeared before the Highway Commission to urge approval of a four - lane highway between Hemstead and Houston. The Senators reminded the Commission that they had helped pass the road bill which frees funds for primary roads.

NO RELIEF IN SIGHT

Many legislators were hoping to go home at the end of the week, but as soon as they processed pending bills, other bills were submitted.

At the end of the week Governor Daniel submitted additional subjects: Authority for the Texas Employment Commission to enter into a compact with other states; financing of the Texas Securities Commission; an appropriation to the Department of Banking; and amendments to the Penal Code.

House members held a Friday session for the first time this month, and resigned themselves to working right through the last of the 30 days of the called session.

INEQUITIES STUDY PROPOSED
Rep. W. S. Heatly of Paducah introduced a resolution that the House Committee on Privileges, Suffrage and Elections study election "inequities" in the Constitution, and report its findings to the next legislature.

Heatly said he didn't think it fair that while the law requires district and county officials to resign upon announcement of their candidacy for another office, it does not require this same action by all state officials.

'Poage Reports'

"The House has spent most of last week passing a bill to increase postal rates. I was one of the relatively small number who voted against this bill. This measure raises all first - class (letter) mail by one cent (20 per cent). I think this is unwarranted. At four cents per letter, first - class mail pays all out-of-pocket costs for its handling. It costs just as much to handle unsealed "junk" mail as first - class mail. I think that we should have raised the postage on this unwanted mail before raising first - class mail.

"Of course, if we were seriously interested in cutting the costs of the Postal Service instead of raising the rates, we could have easily provided that all letters be sent in one of two standard size envelopes. If anyone wanted to use a larger or smaller envelope, we could allow them to do so on payment of an extra fee for the extra trouble they imposed. Some time ago I suggested this to the Postmaster General. He was not interested.

"It also seems clear to me that if we are going to add 20 percent to the cost of first - class mail, we should at least give real "first-class" service - that is, first class-mail should move by the fastest means available. This means that it should be moved by air whenever that was faster. Actually, this bill raises airmail postage to 8 cents.

"These postal rate increases are but tax increases - and I think very unfair taxes. They will make "Russia simply gives a selected group a college education. I would rather give to all who qualify the opportunity to pay for their own college education."

Like to fish where fish bite the year 'round?

Then consider Alcoa Lake!

When Alcoa Lake was opened to public fishing in July of 1954, there were many skeptics who claimed that fishing there wouldn't stand up for two years. Fishing pressure, they said, would kill off a lake that small in nothing flat.

However, by the fall of 1960, more than 215,000 game fish had been taken from Alcoa. Today it still shows no sign of wilting under the pressure.

Where is Alcoa Lake?

Alcoa is located about 60 miles east of Austin. Built by the Aluminum Company of America, it serves as a giant "radiator" for the firm's big plant near Rockdale.

Actually, the lake is in two parts, separated by a dike and connected by a mile - long canal. Water from the "cool" side is pumped through the plant to keep the machinery from over-heating. It comes out in what is called the "hot" side.

In total, Alcoa Lake is about 850 acres in size. Only the cool side, or about 650 acres, is available for public fishing.

No fee is required to fish at Alcoa. You can fish from sunrise to sunset. But for safety reasons no fishing is allowed at night.

This is one lake strictly for fishermen. No motor larger than 15 hp. is permitted. Water skiing is banned.

There is no natural inflow of water into Alcoa. That's one reason why Alcoa usually remains clear and fishable, even during the hardest of downpours.

Water for the lake is pumped through a pipeline some 12 miles from the junction of the San Gabriel and Little Rivers.

Although only the cool side is open to fishing, biologists point to the hot side as the real key to Alcoa's success. They believe that fish spawn in the hotter side the year round, and that many fish migrate down the canal to be caught by fishermen in the cool half.

Actually, one of the most popular spots to fish is where the block-ade cable is stretched across the mouth of the canal at the cool end. The cable is there to keep boats from moving up the canal and disturbing the fish.

There are two public fishing barges at Alcoa. Many people fish off these barges, which have baited waters beneath them. But many more go out in boats to probe the shoreline weeds for catfish, bass and crappie.

"I got it in the Wan' Ads for Alvin - he's always got a scrw loose somewhere!"

IRS Reminds Taxpayers Of Sales Deduction

Taxpayers who itemize their deductions were reminded to take advantage of the amounts allowed for Texas State sales tax payments.

A. P. Andrews, Administrative Officer of Internal Revenue Service at Temple, stated today that IRS has devised a Texas Sales Tax Table, shown below to help the Texas taxpayer calculate this deduction at a glance and without troublesome record keeping. Copies of this table are also available at all IRS offices.

Since the Texas Sales Tax Law did not go into effect until September 1, 1961, the IRS tax table covers the period between September 1 and December 31. A new table will be published for 1962.

ARE THERE not times when language superlatives seem insufficient and one is tempted to coin a stronger descriptive term?

Doubtless, the parents of this wonderful baby think of her as the most important member of the household.

The wisdom of their love is quick to realize that parents cannot begin too soon to be concerned about the spiritual needs of their children. They have not made the mistake of waiting until their baby is "old enough to know how to behave" before taking her to church.

Here, among other "mostest importantests" in the church nursery, she has the affectionate care of devoted hearts and hands while mother and father are in Bible classes, and afterwards will be in worship service.

As she grows, she will "graduate" from one Sunday school department to another. Under constant care of home and church, the time will come when she will understand her spiritual needs and learn to trust God in the provision He has made for her.

Is there a "mostest importantest" in your home? Make sure that your love is as wise as that of the parents of this child—there is no substitute for the combined spiritual ministry of home and church!

combined income doesn't exceed the stated limits.

"Taxpayers using Form 1040A automatically claim the standard 10 per cent deduction allowed for such personal expenses as contributions, interest payments, medical expenses and such. Taxpayers with allowable deductions for these items in excess of 10 per cent of their income for '61 must use the standard Form 1040 if they wish to claim them," the IRS representative explained.
